

AELIA

OVERVIEW.

An exhaustive collection of watersports equipment and toys awaits you on the amazing 56m (183.7ft) AELIA. But even if she had none, AELIA would still be a fantastic yacht for exploring the stunning Eastern Mediterranean. With her two upper deck master suites – each with 180-degree panoramic views from king-sized berths, dressing rooms, lavish marble-lined bathrooms, and private terraces, choosing which you prefer will be your hardest choice.

Whether you're relaxing in the sundeck jacuzzi or dining al fresco in the main deck cockpit, AELIA's highly trained crew will ensure that nothing is too much trouble. Take advantage of the gym and steam room, or head to the massage room and unwind with a treatment. You can watch the latest blockbuster movie in the onboard cinema. Perhaps you'd prefer to spend time with family and friends in the stylish main lounge fresh from a 2024 refit. With a bar area to the rear and the formal dining area ahead, the main lounge is a truly wonderful place to spend your evenings.

Enjoy an informal lunch in the bright sundeck dining area. After this, those looking to sun worship can spend sun-drenched afternoons on the sundeck, relaxing on the sun loungers while enjoying an endless supply of refreshing ice-cold drinks. Most guests, however, take full advantage of an unrivalled collection of watersports equipment and toys. There are three tenders, a Ravik Jet board, a Flite Efoil, a Radinn Esurfboards, two Sea-Doos, four SeaBobs, and inflatables for all ages and abilities; towable inflatables like decks, doughnuts and sofas in two, three and some in four-person configurations, practical inflatable kayaks, SUPs and platforms. However you choose to spend your time in and around the water, AELIA has something for you.

If that's making you tired, you'll want to know about the fabulous guest suites. The upper deck has two spacious master suites, one forward-facing and one aft-facing. Both have a wall of panoramic windows to take full advantage of the elevated view of whichever beautiful anchorage AELIA's captain has brought you to. Between these suites is an upper deck lounge with a TV and a games table. Five more double suites are found on the main and lower decks; each is a haven of tranquillity with a cleanly styled, relaxing, modern feel. Whichever deck your guest suite is on, an elevator that runs from the sundeck to the lower deck makes moving around AELIA effortless.
