ALMYRA II

APERÇU.

In mint condition after a multimillion-dollar refit, ALMYRA II combines the exceptional comfort and space of a Perini Navi yacht with the exhilarating sailing performance you get with 3Di carbon racing sails by North Sails. And if the wind doesn't turn up, you can cruise along at 12 knots under engine.

If you're choosing a sailing charter, it's likely you'll be a nature lover too. Good news, ALMYRA II has a plastic-free policy and baskets full of sustainable products to ensure you're not leaving an unwanted mark on the environment.

ALMYRA II has many features you'll love – like the two outside dining options. Lunch can be taken on the main deck aft, shaded by the bimini overhead. After sunset, the huge sun pad on the aft flybridge converts into a space where you can dine majestically beneath a canopy of stars.

For more formal celebrations, there's a dining room inside, besides a large sit-up bar, tailor-made for those special occasions. The main lounge is the perfect spot to enjoy a movie in air-conditioned comfort as the captain guides the yacht to the next idyllic anchorage – or perhaps you'd prefer to feel the power of the wind and see the sun on the sails in the flybridge sun lounge, which is also where everyone gathers for sundowners.

Another stand-out feature is the toy locker, which has its own swim platform. There are two 5.6m tenders for the extensive list of tow toys, including wakeboard, waterskis and towables, SeaBobs, paddleboards, scuba and snorkelling gear, two kayaks and a two-person Tiwal sailing dinghy so you can keep sailing even at anchor. You can also see more ashore on the yacht's two Gocycle electric bikes.

Flexible, family-friendly accommodation for up to 12 guests in up to five lower deck cabins is another major advantage. The master suite runs the full beam with a bedroom to port, lounge to starboard and his and hers dressing rooms and en suites, one with a bathtub, the other with a shower room.

For 12-guest parties, the lounge converts into a second double cabin, with en suites and dressing rooms for both. There is a third double cabin and two twin cabins, each of which has a pullman berth.

So far, so exceptional. But add to that a talented professional crew, including a culinary genius in the galley, all led by a captain that knows the destinations like a local, and you have a blissful experience ready and waiting. All you need to do is book ALMYRA II.
