ANGELIQUE

OVERVIEW.

ANGELIQUE is a 87m (285.4ft) motor yacht built by Turquoise Yachts, the largest superyacht ever built in Turkey. She is of steel and aluminium construction and was delivered in 2026. Her exterior design and luxurious interior is by H2 Yacht Design.

She can accommodate 16 guests in 7 cabins. Her exterior is designed to maximise seamless indoor-outdoor living. Standout features include a 6.5m glass-sided swimming pool on the main deck, a private winter garden on the owner's deck, a foredeck helipad that also functions as a basketball court, and a sundeck complete with an outdoor cinema and teppanyaki grill. In addition, ANGELIQUE's layout features a dedicated wellness deck complete with a gym, sauna, and hammam, alongside a spacious beach club with fold-down terraces and a drive-in tender garage, creating an exceptional space for relaxation and waterside living.

ANGELIQUE is powered by two MTU engines, these give her a maximum speed of 17 knots and has an approximate range of 5,000nm at an economical speed of 14 knots. She is fitted with stabilisers for increased comfort.
