AXIOMA

OVERVIEW.

AXIOMA is a feature packed yacht that delivers the complete superyacht experience, a very popular choice with guests who want it all.

It's difficult to know what impresses most about this yacht as she has so many amazing features. Up on the sun deck there are daybeds and lounge seating, complete with bar and BBQ so you can toast the sunset and a light dinner. Steps lead down to the bridge deck with a jacuzzi surrounded by sun pads and a bar that is both swim up and walk up. Also on the bridge deck are the spa with steam and massage rooms and a fully equipped gym for a day full of wellness.

Below is the private master deck with a private terrace forward accessible from the bedroom, with skylight overhead, and overlooked by no-one. Aft there is a library room then the spectacular gallery of the double height saloon below. Slide open the doors and there's a spacious terrace with al fresco dining and lounge seating aft overlooking the infinity pool.

The main deck aft is where the family will play for most of the day, in the pool, in the sun and shade, in the lounge areas regularly refreshed by drinks and snacks from the bar. Inside is the sensational saloon, which creates a really special sense of occasion for those with something to celebrate.

Forward on the main deck is a full beam VIP suite, two double cabins and two double/twin cabins, providing flexible, family friendly accommodation with great views through large main deck windows. Add to that the 3D cinema on the lower deck, an elevator serving lower to bridge decks, a limo tender, tow tender and a large locker full of toys and you have a week of unforgettable family memories just waiting to be made.
