CHRISTINA O

OVERVIEW.

Built in 1943 by Canadian Vickers, the 99.1m (325ft) iconic yacht CHRISTINA O is now for sale. She has a fascinating history and has seen many glamorous people on board over her years.

CHRISTINA O was first used as a World War II surplus Canadian frigate. She was then purchased in 1954 by Greek magnate Aristotle Onassis, who spent $4,000,000 on transforming her into a floating palace. She has welcomed everyone from US Presidents to Hollywood royalty.

Her classic exterior is designed by Caeser Pinnau while her beautiful interior boasts a design that epitomises elegance and style. She is finished with elegant fabrics, soft lighting and beautiful furnishings to ensure complete luxury and comfort. CHRISTINA O has many interesting features, including the famous Ari's Bar, which is constructed using timber from a sunken Spanish galleon. There is also a bronze-edged swimming pool and dance floor.

CHRISTINA O was refitted in 2001, updating this glamorous classic. She accommodates up to 34 guests in 17 cabins, including the Onassis suite for the owner.
