OVERVIEW.

Delivered by North American Shipbuilding in 2002 and extensively upgraded between 2023–2026, the 46.6m (153ft) KAJAK presents in exceptional condition following a substantial programme of investment and upgrades. She has also benefited from a recent survey and completion of the recommended works, leaving her exceptionally well positioned for her next owner to enjoy immediately.

One of KAJAK's most compelling features is her extraordinary owner's deck, occupying almost an entire level and spanning approximately 2,000 square feet. The private suite enjoys sweeping ocean views, a secluded aft terrace, library with fireplace, lounge and games area, breakfast nook, dual walk-in wardrobes and separate his and hers bathrooms. Throughout, Ralph Lauren interiors and fine Italian craftsmanship have been thoughtfully refreshed with new furnishings, carpeting and décor, preserving their character while enhancing their contemporary appeal.

Rarely found on a yacht of this size, KAJAK is fully wheelchair accessible, with an elevator serving every deck, wide companionways and accessible bathrooms throughout. Her impressive 499GT volume feels substantially larger thanks to an enclosed observation lounge, all-weather entertaining spaces and a sun deck complete with a 12-person jacuzzi.

Further highlights include a striking shark-grey and blue exterior colour scheme, upgraded AV and lighting systems, redundant Starlink connectivity, a new Williams 625 Jet Tender, 2026 JetBlaster personal watercraft and a full inventory of watertoys.

Combining the craftsmanship, character and volume of a highly customised yacht, KAJAK represents a rare opportunity to acquire a proven platform presented in exceptional condition. Her owners have thoroughly enjoyed the yacht and are now seeking a larger vessel to accommodate their growing family.
