KOJU

OVERVIEW.

Beautiful KOJU is a 37m (121ft) yacht from the esteemed Benetti shipyard. Built last year and designed to host up to ten guests in five luxurious cabins, she offers some lovely living spaces inside and out – on five different levels – with a wide range of special features from the sea-level beach club to the foredeck Jacuzzi. A state-of-the art stabiliser system is fitted to reduce any rolling motion to a minimum and ensure a smooth, comfortable ride at all times.

There's a sundeck of course, but that's not quite the top of this spacious and versatile vessel. Above even that is an intimate observation deck with a triple-width sunbed and nothing else, where the view is fabulous in all directions - and your privacy is assured. One level down, the sundeck is a perfect place to spend the day whether you're anchored or under way. There's a big round table in cool shade for sociable meals or drinks in the open air, a huge expanse of day beds and a separate seating area.

With a palette of blond hardwood and soothing off-white, KOJU's interior is warm and welcoming, elegant and bright. The main saloon has floor-to-ceiling windows that slide right open to let the breeze flow through, and the whole upper deck becomes a seamless and multi-functional inside/outside space when its glass doors are flung open wide. The main deck, too, has a large and sociable open-air lounge space astern which feels fully connected with the main saloon.

All the way forward on the main deck, your full-beam master suite has a separate office, marble bathroom and huge windows. The other four guest cabins on the lower deck are finished in an equally luxurious style.

There's a great selection of watersports kit on board: a 10m (30ft) tender, two Waverunners, two kayaks, two stand-up paddleboards, two SeaBobs, a wakeboard and an eFoil board. Also fishing, snorkelling and scuba diving gear, inflatable tows and an enclosed sea pool where you can swim off the bathing platform in complete safety without any risk of being stung by jellyfish.

Back on board, there's a full set of fitness equipment for your daily workout, from free weights and a training bench to an exercise bike, yoga mats and more. Then when it's time to relax you can plunge into the big spa pool on the foredeck for a soothing soak with a splendid view, or lounge on one of the sun pads and enjoy the cool breeze.
