LAUREL

OVERVIEW.

Built by Delta Marine in 2006, LAUREL is a proven prestigious world traveler and one of the most iconic mega yachts in the world. With one glance, you can tell the quality and the classic luxury LAUREL maintains. LAUREL offers her 12 guests an unbeatable experience while cruising. A popular charter vessel that will undoubtedly catch the attention of any savvy Owner, LAUREL is a fantastic investment opportunity. With her bright blue hull and classic lines, she is the epitome of elegance.

LAUREL's clever layout offers both intimate social spaces and expansive deck spaces perfect for entertaining. Her interior design introducing exotic woods, glass, large windows, and big volume with a 40' beam sets LAUREL apart. Not to mention her crowning features: a spa pool, gymnasium, enormous beach club, and 7 staterooms.

LAUREL is particularly well-suited to families and features a child-friendly set-up and countless toys to keep them entertained while on board. Guests will enjoy seamless access to the water with her enormous beach club and can travel between all decks via her elevator.

The flexible cabin arrangement offers a range of options for guests. In addition to the on-deck master suite, LAUREL has four identical king cabins, a queen with a single and pullman, and an optional seventh cabin that is equipped with Murphy beds and/or massage table. The full beam owner's suite offers two private balconies, a service alcove, a lounge, a study and his and hers en suite bathrooms – a true oasis on board.

There are several generous social areas to enjoy on board LAUREL. The library and media room can host movie nights or intimate cocktail evenings. For al fresco entertaining, she benefits from two generous dining areas on the aft deck and bridge deck, while her sun deck offers loungers and a jacuzzi to enjoy throughout the day. Her sky lounge also acts as a second salon for air-conditioned comfort with a view.
