

LUNA

APERÇU.

A 90-metre (295ft) quad-deck yacht from the elite Oceanco shipyard, LUNA puts privacy right at the top of her impressive list of special features with a magnificent owner's deck that is specifically designed for total discretion. Special glazing throughout the vessel ensures that guests can enjoy their holiday away from prying eyes.

LUNA has two separate heli decks: one up top facing aft, which also serves as an open sundeck with a couple of hooded day beds, and a second helipad on the foredeck. Her other stand-out exterior features are a swimming pool with a counter current system on the upper aft deck, which is flanked by lounges and a sublime outdoor dining space, and a beach club in her stern with a bar and lounge – the launch pad for her huge array of watersports equipment and toys.

Step on board from the sea-level boarding platform amidships and an elevator will whisk you up to the three main levels of guest accommodation, which are elegant and bright with floor-to-ceiling windows throughout, so every space has a stunning view of the seascape. On the main deck there's a spectacular spa with a massage and therapy room, sauna and hammam, as well as a large and comprehensively equipped gym. The main deck saloon has a large and sociable lounge with a bar, games and TV areas and a separate fine dining space with an 18-seat table.

The upper deck bar and lounge flow seamlessly out into the huge outdoor area with its big oval pool, creating the perfect party zone. There's also a dedicated TV lounge on this level, ideal for movies, gaming and more. The onboard entertainment system is a remarkable feature in its own right, with huge libraries of films and music, a choice of streaming services and satellite connectivity in the world's major cruising grounds.

The top level of LUNA's guest accommodation is the amazing inner sanctum of this incredible yacht: the completely private owner's deck. Here you'll have a living room with breathtaking views facing forward, looking out onto your personal terrace with a big jacuzzi that enjoys total seclusion. There's also a spa tub in the grand en suite bathroom which is fully glazed for uninterrupted sea views as you bathe, and a large, separate dressing room accessed from the opposite side of the owner's cabin. The cabin itself looks aft with glass doors opening onto another private outdoor space with sofas in full shade and a 360° rotating daybed.
