MIA RAMA

APERÇU.

Combining the talents of Golden Yachts with Studio Giorgio Vafiadis, the 53.5m (175.6ft) MIA RAMA was launched in 2010. Built with the charterer in mind, she has become one of the finest charter yachts on the market thanks to her stylish sit-up bar, vast inventory of watertoys, superb al fresco entertainment areas and talented crew.

Start the day with breakfast on the main deck where a casual al fresco dining area will have been set up by MIA RAMA's attentive crew. Fuelled and ready for the day ahead, some guests may choose to enjoy the convivial sun deck, where the sit-up bar has great views of the anchorage, others might prefer to head down to the swim platform for a morning of watersports. As well as jetskis, inflatables and stand up paddleboards, her flyboards, wakeboards and towables provide hours of fun on and in the water.

Having worked up an appetite it's time for a relaxed lunch. MIA RAMA offers guests al fresco dining on every level. Choose from the secluded upper deck or the sun deck with panoramic views and two tables seating up to 24 guests in one sitting. A nearby sit-up bar is the perfect place to catch up with fellow guests, while a large bank of sun pads is just a few steps away, inviting you to soak up some rays before cooling off in the jacuzzi. For those looking for some quiet time, there are plenty of sunbathing and lounging areas on every deck, while the upper and main lounges provide a cooling retreat with sumptuous sofas.

Following an afternoon of relaxation it's time to burn more energy, perhaps with a quick visit to the on board gym or simply head straight into party mode with sundowner cocktails. A delicious dinner is served, perhaps this time in the formal dining saloon, before a nightcap or a private party on board. However you wish to finish off your first day on board, rest assured MIA RAMA's stylish accommodation will not disappoint. Beautifully presented thanks to an interior update in 2014 right up to 2019, she welcomes 12 guests to a main deck master suite, three VIP cabins and three twin cabins across the main, lower and upper decks. Combined, they provide the ultimate haven for large families or groups of friends chartering this fabulous superyacht.
