

MOSAIQUE

OVERVIEW.

When you step aboard MOSAIQUE, you will congratulate yourself on your choice of charter. Although she was built in 2002, MOSAIQUE has the classic lines and spacious decks reminiscent of cruising's glory days. Newly refitted, her interior suggests high-end boutique hotel - and with every convenience on tap from fine dining to an RYA watersports centre, you'll want to come sailing every year.

Open your eyes to views of the anchorage glittering through the windows of your master stateroom. The ornate panelling and deep carpet underfoot creates an ambiance of easy luxury you as you dress for breakfast. This is one of six equally fine cabins aboard, so you know that your party of 12 will have all slept well.

Take the central stairs from the foyer to the upper deck where breakfast is laid ready on the teak aft deck. Everyone gathers here to start the day: in the shade of the awning coffee is sipped, oranges freshly-juiced and towers of pancakes devoured while the day's plan is discussed.

MOSAIQUE is approved as an RYA Training Centre so you couldn't be in better hands to hone your skills – and come away with a recognised certificate. Jetski, waterski, snorkel, scuba or kayak – just some of the options to keep you entertained. And for pure fun, take a ride on the inflatable donut.

When cruising, a trip ashore is a must to explore the local scene in each port, and the yacht's 8m (26.3ft) tender can nip you there in no time. After the markets and antiques, you'll be ready for lunch – maybe time for the crew to take you to that water-edge tavern renowned for the freshest seafood platters.

Back on board MOSAIQUE the sun deck is beckoning. With loungers, a jacuzzi and sit up bar, you will while away happy hours soaking in the warm sun and catching up on that reading that you've been looking forward to. Swimming off the platform astern is a lovely way to cool off after sunbathing.

As the sun begins to dip, find your way to the sky lounge bar. This glamorous room seamlessly marries tradition with edgy modern furniture in a cool designer scheme – the perfect place to gather for pre-dinner drinks.

Fine dine on the main deck with haute cuisine that you'll want to linger over, before stepping though to the main saloon. Leave the children in here, snuggled up to watch a movie – the star-lit sea beckons you out on deck to spend time alone with your loved one.
