NOMAD

OVERVIEW.

Delivered in 2019 as part of the highly successful Amels 180 series, NOMAD showcases exterior design by Tim Heywood and is instantly recognisable by her striking custom blue hull. Combining proven Dutch shipyard pedigree with a relaxed, contemporary atmosphere, she offers a versatile platform for family cruising, entertaining and extended time on the water.

Accommodating up to 14 guests in six cabins, NOMAD features a full-beam owner's suite with a private fold-down balcony, alongside a flexible guest layout well suited to a variety of ownership lifestyles. Her expansive outdoor spaces are centred around a feature-rich sun deck with a jacuzzi, gym equipment, outdoor cinema and pizza oven, while an extensive collection of watersports equipment ensures endless enjoyment on the water.

Powered by twin MTU engines, NOMAD cruises comfortably at 13 knots and offers a transoceanic range of up to 4,500nm, providing the capability for extended cruising in complete comfort.

Combining the renowned pedigree of the Amels 180 Limited Editions range, proven charter credentials and impressive long-range capability, NOMAD represents an exceptional opportunity to acquire a distinctive and highly versatile 55m motor yacht.
