

ORIENT STAR

OVERVIEW.

Award winning ORIENT STAR shines brightly among the yachts in her size category as an excellent charter choice. Her décor is masculine yet comforting and there is an abundance of social spaces to enjoy both inside and outside, completed to the elegant and contemporary design by Tara Bernard that is reminiscent of a penthouse city apartment.

After an early morning workout in the gym make your way to the bridge deck aft, which is a hive of activity as everyone gathers for breakfast. With optional shade over the comfortable seating as well as the large dining table, there is space for everyone to start the day at their own pace.

Pick up the speed with ORIENT STAR's jetskis or test your balance with the waterskis and wakeboards. Meanwhile, coffee and cakes are served in the cosy, shaded seating area of the main deck aft, which offers panoramic views of the action below. For a little alone time, head up to the sun deck's expansive sun pad or take a dip in the jacuzzi. Then bring all your family and friends for a canoe and paddleboard excursion along the coastline, heading towards an idyllic beach that has been set up for a delicious BBQ lunch prepared by the chef.

After returning to ORIENT STAR on the Williams jet tender, enjoy some time catching up with a friend while sipping your favourite tipple in the sophisticated surroundings of the main deck lounge and bar. The bridge deck office and library provides a sanctuary in which to recline with a good book. And if you are in the mood for some more activity, the divers among your group can pull on a tank and fins to explore a local wreck site.

With the afternoon turning into evening, it is time to change for dinner. The full beam master suite provides superb views of the surroundings thanks to its large windows, while there are two VIP suites and two twin cabins to complete the accommodation for 10. For your added comfort, ORIENT STAR has a stabilisation system used both at anchor and when underway, assuring a relaxing experience on board throughout.

An elegant dinner is served in the privacy of the main deck's dining area, with the yacht's talented chef preparing a menu to your personal tastes. Then, after dinner, the sun deck has been transformed for late night dancing under the stars with lights, music and bespoke cocktails mixed at the sit-up bar. You are sure to be given star treatment with a charter on board this remarkable superyacht.
