

PERSEUS3

OVERVIEW.

Immaculately presented and maintained, the stunning PERSEUS^3 offers all the charms you would expect from a pedigree sailing yacht with uncompromised luxury. Built by the renowned Italian shipyard Perini Navi with naval architecture by Ron Holland, she combines superyacht racing credentials with the luxurious guest accommodation more commonly found on a motor yacht. As such she is the perfect yacht for both regatta racing and those who want the size, comfort and facilities of a motor yacht with the flexibility to unfurl the sails when suits and feel the exhilaration of natural power.

During a charter aboard PERSEUS^3 guests can experience fun and relaxation both on and off the water. Wake up with a refreshing morning swim, diving off the fold down swim platform. Enjoy a leisurely breakfast in the main deck cockpit – the preferred spot for al fresco dining, protected from the elements by curved glass. Make the most of the peace up on the large flybridge where there is a good selection of sofas, sun pads and cushions to laze around on. Alternatively, chill out with family or friends on the foredeck where there is a heated swimming pool with counter current and sun loungers.

After a morning spent sunbathing and swimming, enjoy an al fresco BBQ lunch on the flybridge, then perhaps follow lunch with an afternoon of fun on the water. Whether you want to snorkel and dive, learn to waterski, or enjoy a more sedate paddleboard, PERSEUS^3 carries a fabulous toybox on board.

At the end of the afternoon it's time to freshen up and step up on deck for a sundowner, while your talented chef prepares an exquisite dinner to be served either in the sheltered cockpit or in the main saloon dining area accompanied by music from the self-playing piano. Sit up late with a nightcap on the flybridge or lose yourself with a movie in the main saloon complete with deep comfy sofas.

When it's time to call it a day, the accommodation on PERSEUS^3 is ideal for groups of family or friends. The full beam master suite has its own private lounge and study, which can be split into two separate cabins to create a sixth cabin. The rest of the guest accommodation comprises two VIP cabins, two twin cabins and one convertible cabin, allowing for all manner of arrangements depending on the charter party. Her successful charter record is a credit to her 11 crew who are on hand to ensure that you feel completely at home on this superb sailing yacht.
