

STAY SALTY

STAY SALTY

OVERVIEW.

A private yacht charter holiday is by far the best way to experience the dramatic sights and glorious scenery of British Colombia – and the 41-metre (135ft) tri-deck STAY SALTY is a perfect platform for exploring the fabled waters of the Inside Passage in supreme comfort and high-end luxury, with a variety outside and inside spaces to suit the full range of weather and sea conditions.

Cruise through a backdrop of breathtaking scenery – soaring snow-capped mountain peaks, pine-forested islets, waterfalls plunging into narrow fjords that lead to pristine glaciers – with spectacular 360° views from the sundeck, which is partially covered with a hardtop and has a heated jacuzzi pool aft. Whatever the forecast, rain or shine, warm or cool, there's a perfect place on board to relax and enjoy this spectacular cruising ground to the full.

The interior styling is clean and timeless, with a high-gloss varnished hardwood finish in most of the guest areas, comfortable contemporary furniture and marble bathrooms. The main deck saloon is a large, inviting open plan space with a sociable lounge and an elegant dining area with a large oval table. She also has a dedicated gym and a sauna.

One stand-out feature, hard to find on a yacht of this size, is STAY SALTY's private owner's deck. The entire bridge deck (apart from the wheelhouse, which has separate access) is dedicated to the master suite including the upper aft deck, which serves as a private outside lounge terrace, and the sky lounge, which is the master suite's living room and study. This connects directly with the full-beam master cabin, which also has a door leading out onto the port-side companionway.

This unusual layout arrangement allows there to be an equally grand and lavish VIP suite at the forward end of the main deck with a large L-shaped sofa on one side of the full-beam cabin and a luxurious marble bathroom, so she's an ideal yacht for two couples or families sharing a charter. The other three guest cabins on the lower deck are all nicely finished in the same timeless contemporary-classic style.
